What the Wind Heard.

The wind passing over the bright fields one day heard the bounding daisy to the golden buttercup say, "How can we, the wild flowers, as the whole world knows, compare with the fragrant and beautiful rose?"

"I wish I were so stately and tall, and the most loved and admired by all. We can in no way compare."

"With one so beautiful and fair." "Well, I do not," said the daisy buttercup. "I would rather stay small and not grow up."

And as for being loved and admired, why, there are happy children, who of us never grow tired.

When after the snow and rains, they hold us up to their merry faces, is there any love that can compare with love so true as theirs?

We have the love of the bright sunlight, the kind rains, the gentle winds and starry night."

The artful wind then on its way sped, to the rose and said to the buttercup said—"I, too, would now rather a daisy be, to live always dear sister, with thee."

And dance and frolic and play with the merry children in the fields all day.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured Local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When the tube is inflamed, it swells and closes, so that the vibrations cannot reach the eardrum. Deafness is the result and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness cured by our method, that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free. F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, Ohio.

Teachers' Examinations and Summer School

Arrangements have been made whereby State examinations for local teachers will be held at the Norway High School building on June 27th, from 9 a. m. to 12, and from 1.30 to 4 p. m. It will be necessary for all teachers to hold State certificates, beginning with the next school year. A change has been made in the State Summer School for teachers.

The work is to be arranged to aid teachers in their efforts to raise the grade of their certificates. A four week term will be held each summer at the Norway Normal School. Teachers holding elementary grade certificates and having considerable experience may expect, after three or four terms attendance, to raise the grade of their certificates to that of the professional grade without further examination. Credit for each term's work will be recorded. The number of terms that a teacher will be required to spend in raising the grade of her certificate will depend upon the individual ability and progress shown.

The work will be restricted to forenoon sessions, leaving the afternoons free for study and recreation. A few evening lectures and entertainments will be provided. If you propose to attend this summer school, you should signify your intention by writing to Principal W. E. Russell of Gorham, requesting that a reservation of a room be made and in regard to expenses.

EAST PARIS.
N. P. Croteau works at Paris Hill for Wm. Kimball.

We hear that a family from Bethel are soon to move in the Ripley house.

W. W. Maxim went to the funeral of his cousin, Charles Edwin Mayhew, who died in Auburn, Friday, May 8th.

C. H. Colby is still very poorly, but rides out on pleasant days.

Tent caterpillars are very numerous, but not so much so as those between Paris Hill and South Paris. They are also plentiful on the bushes by the roadside on the Stony Brook road. We shall have another "caterpillar year" soon if they are allowed to go on. It looks like slackness.

The Finland man, who bought Mrs. Cora Hardy's farm, has moved there. His wife and three children arrived here from Finland, last week.

Paint or Not.
Paint was so high the last few years the market was flooded with trash.

It looks like paint and pretends to be paint, but isn't worth painting. It costs a painter's day's work to put on a gallon of paint, good or bad; and a painter's day's work is $3 or $4.

Add that to the price of a gallon. That is the cost of a gallon. Devoe is $2 or $3 a gallon; and trash a half-dollar less.

But Devoe is all paint and more too; you add oil to it; a gallon is 5 or 6 quarts of perfect paint for the painter's pot. But trash is three-quarters two-thirds or half paint; you pay a half-dollar less for nobody-knows-what-it-is.

10 gallons Devoe is enough for the average job; it takes 15 to 20 gallons of trash. And the wear same way. Unfortunately, they look alike when first put on.

This Kidney Remedy
A Great Healer

For a number of years I was troubled with my kidneys, condition so serious that part of the time I was unable to work. I tried several remedies, also different physicians without relief. A sample of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root was left at my house. I commenced to take it and continued it until I had taken several bottles and am now cured. Am sixty-two years of age and able to work every day. I attribute my cure to the use of your Swamp-Root.

My wife was also cured by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root. Symptoms were very serious, including hemorrhages, great pain and distress. I commenced giving her Swamp-Root and it was just as healing in her case. We can heartily recommend your Swamp-Root to all kidney sufferers.

Very truly yours,

HOW TO RENOVATE LAST YEAR'S GOWN.

The revival of the pettop skirt has brought about the use of four or five ruffles of graduated depth, the deepest beginning at the waist.

This fashion should instantly suggest to a woman what she can do with one of last winter's gowns that is in need of renovating. Lace or net or chiffon or tulle can be used for these ruffles. The one requirement is that they should be so draped and gathered that they steadily diminish toward the foot line.

As the entirely plain satin or velvet skirt is not in first fashion this winter any woman may be glad to know how she can use what she has.

It may not be an expensive proposition to buy lace or any other fabric sufficiently to supply these ruffles, but only the woman herself can tell whether the experiment is worth the price.

EXOTIC STUCCO.

How to Make the Plaster House Look at Home.

There is an exotic look about many stucco and plaster houses built in many parts of the world today, and it is because the plaster house is really a product of the tropics transplanted. When it is built in colder climates it lacks the environment which it was made to fit and therefore lacks something essential.

Take a plaster cottage on the bleak New England sea coast or a stucco cabin in a western desert or a plaster and stucco house in any of a hundred suburbs in temperate climates. They do not look as if they belonged where they are. And this is the reason:

In their native home, the tropics, they are covered with vines and hidden with shrubs a few months after they are built, and the comfortable covering which Mother Nature gives them soon cloaks their bareness. They immediately become a part of the landscape, just as frame houses merge with the trees about them. The stucco bungalows of California, covered with roses and flowering shrubs, look as if they had stood where they stand since the beginning of civilization.

So the thing for the owner of a stucco or plaster house to do is to plant quick growing vines and shrubs about it and so cloak it. Hardy evergreens barked at the corners will help make the house look comfortable in the winter. In the summer honeysuckle, rambler roses, hollyhocks, wisteria and other quick growing vines and shrubs and plants can be used to make the stucco house look better.

ETIQUETTE POINT.

How to Give the Popular Afternoon Tea.

Afternoon teas continue to be a great feature among the entertainments of the day. Fashion calls on a mother to introduce her daughter. Certain formalities are observed on a special occasion of the sort for the introducing of a debutante. An engraved card is used, having the name of the daughter beneath that of her mother, with the date, the hours for receiving and the address.

In the lower left hand corner of the card may be the words, "Fridays in January," to indicate other days during the winter for receiving more informally. Cards are about five inches long by three and a half wide. The usual style of engraving is script. According to recent fashion the form is:

Mrs. Archibald Robinson and Miss Edith Robinson
Will be at home
on Tuesday, the First of December from four until seven o'clock at Seven East Seventy-third Street.

Cards for large teas or days at home are sent out two weeks in advance; small teas or so in advance.

Invitations to teas are in the name of the hostess, not in the united names of husband and wife.

At a large tea or reception for a debutante music for dancing is a feature. An orchestra is in the hall or in a room set apart for dancing. The musicians may be screened off by palms.

How to Renovate Worn Sweaters.

When woolen sweaters may show on examination some dangerously thin places—round the pockets, beneath the arms, etc.—which may soon wear into a hole, procure some wool exactly like the coat, if possible, or the very nearest to match. Buy an ounce or two more than is required for the actual knitting of the coat, and then when renovations are necessary it is in readiness.

Knit a piece in the pattern of the coat, somewhat larger than the thin part, lay it on with the thin side to the wrong side of the garment, matching the pattern as you would a patch, and darn invisibly into position with the same kind of wool. As the thin parts wear through (if they do), draw all ends of wool through to the underside of patch and darn in.

A TENDER HEART.

A tender hearted and compassionate disposition, which inclines men to pity and to feel the misfortunes of others and which is even for its own sake incapable of involving any man in ruin and misery, is of all tempers of mind the most amiable, and though it seldom receives much honor, is worthy of the highest.

PLAYGROUNDS IN READING, PA.

Good Models For Other Communities.

STARTED TEN YEARS AGO.

Ten Thousand Children Enjoy the Benefits of These Institutions Every Year—Some of the Playgrounds Are Constructed Over Reservoirs.

Reading's system of playgrounds, from a small beginning, has grown into one of the most comprehensive and elaborate in the state of Pennsylvania, and become a model for other cities to follow, with the result that many delegations have visited Reading from elsewhere to get pointers on the subject.

The first playground was started ten years ago by the Olivet Presbyterian church in a vacant lot at the rear of the church edifice. Subsequently the civic division of the Woman's club took up the cause, and finally the Reading Playgrounds association was evolved.

The association now receives annual and city appropriations from the school board and city government for maintenance and equipment, and the half dozen grounds are fitted up with various devices for both rational recreation and useful occupation.

Two large plots of the Reading iron company's land are occupied by playgrounds. On one of them are the Olivet gardens, which the Olivet Boys' club has made a big success, combining play with the raising of vegetables and truck by neighborhood families. The good Fellowship gardens are conducted along similar lines by the Woman's club.

Probably the most novel playgrounds in the country are those at the Penn street reservoirs, which are maintained by the Reading water board. These are immediately adjacent to the city park. The feature here is the fact that the playgrounds are actually over two of the city's largest reservoirs, which are roofed with concrete.

This provides two skating rinks for roller skating in summer and ice skating in winter, when the roofs are flooded and allowed to freeze. In addition to the sports at the park rinks, there is a regular curriculum of teaching in basket making, raffa work and other lines, as at all the other playgrounds, by a staff of experts. Folk dancing on the green is also enjoyed.

For next season the Playgrounds association has planned more extensive than ever. To this end it has engaged Professor A. A. Harwick, physical instructor of the Reading public school system, to take charge as supervisor. Ten thousand children share the benefits of Reading's playgrounds every year.

HOUSES AT COST FOR POOR.

Detroit Women Plan Sanitary Residences at Nominal Rentals.

Detroit's poor will have an opportunity of renting sanitary cottages at nominal figure if the plans of the Twentieth Century club, an organization of prominent Detroit women, are successfully completed.

The cue for this work was taken from Mrs. Mary Mannering Wadsworth, ex-actress, who, since her residence at Grosse Pointe, has built a number of simple cottages for the occupancy of working people and who demonstrated that this enterprise could be made a success. Making money is not the purpose of Mrs. Wadsworth or the Twentieth Century club. The occupants of the cottages are to pay on the basis of cost.

The cottages will be built of cement, containing four and six rooms and costing about $3,000 each.

Wink at Some Things.

"When you have mastered the gentle art of winking," said Lord Beaconsfield, "you hold the key to success in your hands."

Every one's personality is made up of trivial failings and trivial talents. Foster the good qualities. In your friends and subordinates and wink at their failings so dear to their possessors. Not to see everything is a rule which will strengthen friendships and help you to get the best results from your fellow workers.

YOU CAN'T EAT APPETITE POOR.

Multitudes of people lose their appetite. Simply don't care for anything to eat. The dinner bell has no interest to them. They loathe their breakfast. They may nibble a little of this and a little of that, but they do not care for it.

Lunch has lost all of its charms, although they try to eat something. Dinner about the same.

There is something positively wrong, of course, but no disease that can be named. Just out of sorts. That is all.

It is in this kind of a condition that Peruna acts very beneficially.

After using Peruna, interest in food is revived. Beginning with a teaspoonful of Peruna before each meal will generally quickly improve the appetite and help the digestion.

Thousands of people can testify to this. Liberated from a slavery that is almost unbearable. The slavery of having no interest in life. All used up. Yet one does not know exactly why. Take Peruna before each meal. Sides will get blue again. Fields will look green once more and life will be pleasant. You will feel that you are good for something and the world is a good place to live in. Peruna will do it. Not as an artificial stimulant. Simply a tonic that stimulates appetite is a natural way.

Those who object to liquid medicines can now obtain Peruna Tablets.

OXFORD.

A Variety Shower.

On Monday evening, June 8, several young ladies from Oxford village gave a variety shower to Angelina Thayer of South Paris. Miss Thayer is to be married in the near future and her many friends gathered at the home of Mrs. H. R. Farris, and assembling in the parlor, turned off the light and invited Miss Thayer downstairs. Miss Thayer was totally ignorant of the occasion and was "in the dark" both as to time and place.

The many articles were placed in a large basket and Miss Thayer was requested to take them out and guess the giver of each, and it is needless to state that the guess was not always correct.

The merry party played games, enjoyed refreshments, wound up with several songs, and departed for their several homes, wishing Angie much pleasure in the enjoyment of her useful presents.

The Dixie Comedians were at Robinson Hall three nights last week.

William Trebilcock, who has been visiting his parents here for a few weeks, went to Portland, Wednesday.

Rev. H. L. Faulkingham was in Lewiston and Mechanic Falls, Tuesday.

Edmond Daniels and family from Lewiston visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Noah Daniels, last week.

The Oxford and Androscoggin Co. Conference will hold their June session with the Advent church at Oxford, commencing Thursday, June 11th, and hold over the following Sunday.

Dr. and Mrs. W. B. Haskell attended the graduation of their daughter, Alfreda, at Oak Grove Seminary, Vassalboro, Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Brackett and daughters, Nellie and Annie, who have been visiting at David Millett's, have returned home.

Mrs. L. F. Wardwell is visiting Mrs. Leland Stone, in Portland, for a few days.

Mrs. Nellie Andrews of Augusta is spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Hayes.

Dorothy Webb of Colby College is training the class of 1914 for the graduation, on Friday afternoon.

A. J. Holden was in Portland, Saturday of last week.

The widow of Newell Linnell was in town last week, visiting relatives. Mrs. Frank Bean is her niece. Mr. Linnell lived in town many years, but was living in New Gloucester when he died.

The Campfire girls invited the "Boy Scouts to a tramp and dinner on Rocky Dundy, Saturday last. They report a good time.

Sunday, June 14th, K. P. will hold their annual Memorial service in the Congregational church. Sermon by the pastor, Rev. Malcolm McKay. There will be no service in the Methodist church Sunday morning.

The Juniors of Oxford High school gave a reception, Friday evening, June 5th, to the graduating class, at the home of the principal, John L. Dyer. The entertainment consisted of vocal and instrumental music. Cake and ice cream was served and a good time was enjoyed.

Sunday, June 7th, Rev. W. H. Fess preached the baccalaureate sermon before the graduating class. Subject, Making of a Life. It was fine discourse and gave the class food for thought. Mr. Fess was suffering from a bad cold and was unable to lead the Sunday evening service. Rev. Malcolm McKay kindly took charge for him.

Rev. J. M. Frost, superintendent of Augusta district, was here, Tuesday evening and held his first quarterly conference after the meeting.

PURE GEORGIAN COLONIAL STYLE.

Design 786, by Glenn L. Saxton, Architect, Minneapolis, Minn.

PERSPECTIVE VIEW—FROM A PHOTOGRAPH.

FIRST FLOOR PLAN.

SECOND FLOOR PLAN.

This mansion was built in the state of Iowa. The design was carefully studied and worked out in the most minute detail. The general idea is typical of the old genuine colonial home, with central hall through the entire house, with living rooms placed each side. Sun parlor opening from the living room is modern. The floor plans present the merits of this design more accurately than the best word description. It makes a very complete residence of medium cost. The second story has four chambers, ample closet space and a sleeping porch. Full basement under entire house, 7 feet 6 inches high; first story, 9 feet 2 inches; second, 8 feet 4 inches, and third story, 8 feet. First story finished in red gum; with Circassian walnut veneered doors; second story white enamel on gumwood, with birch doors stained mahogany. Size, 40 feet wide over main part and 32 feet deep. Birch or maple floors throughout first and second stories. Cost to build, exclusive of heating and plumbing, $8,500.

Upon receipt of $1 the publisher of this paper will supply a copy of Saxton's book of plans, "American Dwellings." It contains about 250 up to date designs of cottages, bungalows and residences costing from $1,000 to $6,000.

REPAIRING A CRANK PIN.

Simple and Ingenious Method of Increasing Diameter.

A crank pin was found to be considerably out of true and to turn it up would necessitate the making of a new connecting rod and brass, so it was decided to build the piece up to fit the brasses in the old connecting rod. This was accomplished as follows: The crank pin was centered as accurately as possible in a lathe and a rounded end threading tool used to cut a groove spirally on the surface of the pin. The groove was not cut deep, and the feed was set for a large thread so that about one-third-second of an inch was left between turns.

One end of a piece of steel wire was then brazed to the pin and lightly wound around it in the spiral groove. The wire was of such size that it filled the groove and fitted snugly against the preceding turn. When the whole pin had been wound the wire was brazed, and the pin was then turned in a lathe to the proper diameter. When completed the surface of the pin was perfectly smooth, and it was almost impossible to detect that it had been wound with wire.—Popular Mechanics.

Brush For Acid Cleaning.

A good brush for applying acid to articles for soldering can be made of a piece of small copper pipe for the handle and fine copper wire for the brush. To make the brush part take a piece of cardboard about one and one-quarter inches wide and wind several turns of No. 28 gauge copper wire around it, then remove the coil, insert about one-half inch of it in the pipe and flatten the latter to hold the wire. Clip the ends of the wire, and a brush will be had that ordinary acids will not affect. If only a short piece of pipe is available it can be used as a ferrule and a handle made of wire or wood.

A Shellac Cement.

As shellac is the basis of almost all cement, a good cement can be made by thickening shellac varnish with dry white lead. The two may be worked together on a piece of glass with a putty knife.

What a Scotsman Wears.

A Scottish correspondent, signing himself "Haggis," writes to us as follows: "Dear Sir—Please state in your column that a Scotsman wears a kilt, not kilts. Thus Harry Lauder went to amuse the king clad in a kilt, not in kilts."

We regret to say that we find ourselves unable to accede to our correspondent's request. Respect for truth compels us to state that a Scotsman must invariably wear neither a kilt nor kilts, but trousers.—London Mail.

WATERFORD.

Flag Day Observance.

National Flag day occurs each year on June 14th. Since this is about the time when the Waterford school year closes, the last day of school is observed each year by all the schools as Flag day. This will occur this year June 19th at Waterford. It has been customary in preceding years to have an oration. This year no oration will be given. In place of this the Norway High school orchestra of eight pieces will furnish music for the day. Each school will contribute a part of the program which will begin at 10 a. m.

Patriotic citizens interested in the schools are requested to lend their support by their presence. Let us get together this day to make the day a greater success than in the preceding years. ### What a Scotsman Wears.

A Scottish correspondent, signing himself "Haggis," writes to us as follows: "Dear Sir—Please state in your column that a Scotsman wears a kilt, not kilts. Thus Harry Lauder went to amuse the king clad in a kilt, not in kilts."

We regret to say that we find ourselves unable to accede to our correspondent's request. Respect for truth compels us to state that a Scotsman almost invariably wears neither a kilt nor kilts, but trousers.—London Mail.

WOMAN COULD HARDLY STAND

Because of Terrible Backache. Relieved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Philadelphia, Pa.—"I suffered from displacement and inflammation, and had such pains in my sides, and terrible backache so that I could hardly stand. I took six bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and now I can do any amount of work, sleep good, eat good, and don't have a bit of trouble. I recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to every suffering woman."—Mrs. HARRY FISHER, 1642 Juniata Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

Another Woman's Case.
Providence, R. I.—"I cannot speak too highly of your Vegetable Compound as it has done wonders for me and I would not be without it. I had a displacement, bearing down, and backache, until I could hardly stand on my feet. I ran down when I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It helped me and I am in the best of health at present. I work in a factory all day long besides doing my housework so you can see what it has done for me. I give you permission to publish my name and I speak of your Vegetable Compound to many of my friends."—Mrs. ABRIEL LAWSON, 126 Lippitt St., Providence, R. I.

Danger Signals to Women
are what one physician called backache, headache, nervousness, and the blues. In many cases they are symptoms of some female derangement or an inflammation of the reproductive system which may be overcome by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Thousands of American women willingly testify to its virtue.

Gen. Israel Putnam's Watch.
Alvin C. Doten of Paris and Bolster's Mills and now driver of the Harison stage, shows us a bull's eye watch that is 165 or more years old and is said to have been owned by Israel Putnam before he left his plough to go into the Revolutionary struggle. This watch is supposed to have been carried by him during the war and come into the possession of one Sampson who moved from Concord, Mass., to Hartford, Me., after the close of the war.

Mr. Sampson's son, Nathan Sampson, of Hartford carried it in his life time and it fell to his son, Lewis Sampson, of that town who sold it to Alvin C. Doten for $16.00, and it is the son of this Mr. Doten who now owns it. Mr. Doten, Sr., fell dead Feb. 19, 1850, one day after the birth of the present Mr. Doten.

The watch is ticking off time with reasonable accuracy and it is driven by a "chain and barrel." It was cleaned by Boston watch maker, Sept. 12, 1749; and by B. B. Wood, 139 Washington street, Boston, May 24, 1774, and the name of Israel Putnam is subscribed thereon. Alvin Skinner, same city, fixed it Sept. 9, 1839, and Daniel C. Hall, Gray, Me., on Dec. 21, 1847, and this record shows ownership in Alvin Doten of Sumner, Me.

This watch has been loaned to several indigent school masters in the past 100 years. Among them is S. E. Newell of Paris Hill.

SEVERE RHEUMATIC PAINS DISAPPEAR

Hood's Sarsaparilla Will Surely Bring Relief—Don't Suffer.

Rheumatism, which perhaps causes more suffering than any other disease, depends on an acid which flows in the blood, affecting the muscles and joints, producing inflammation, stiffness and pain.

This acid gets into the blood through some defect in the digestive processes, and remains there, because the liver, kidneys and skin are too torpid to carry it off.

Hood's Sarsaparilla, the old-time blood tonic, is very successful in the treatment of rheumatism. It acts directly, with purifying effect, on the blood, and through the blood, on the liver, kidneys and skin, which it stimulates, and at the same time it improves the digestion.

Don't delay treatment until you are in worse condition. Get Hood's and begin taking it today.

Mountain Painter from Maine.

Under the above head "The International Studio" of New York prints the following of a Norway man and his art. A number of his pencil drawings illustrate this magazine and his work.

A solitary art student from childhood, entirely self-taught, George Lorenzo Noyes, has spent fifty years, all of his life in fact, in Norway. A deep love of the beauty, strength and many of nature influenced him from early youth to become an artist, in which pursuit he has been encouraged by his many friends in Norway, who are themselves artists, scientists or journalists.

In his constant search for both the subtle and grander expressions of light and shade, especially in the moldings and colors of skies, clouds, mountains, their valleys, slope sand summits, he has been a daily familiar figure, during his entire life, either on some remote country road or secluded path; in the fields, meadows and woods; along the shore of some lake or the banks of some stream, or on the pastured open slopes of hills and mountains, drinking leisurely but deeply of the varied truths and beauties of these scenes to which he has been most fondly attached since childhood.

He has lived intimately with the mountains throughout all their most typical seasons and at all hours of the day; is at home with their many slopes, precipices, slides, valleys and ridges, has often bivouacked secret, artistic beauties, both in most intimate contact with them and at most varied distances. From these continuous associations he has developed his profound appreciation of the artistic beauties of the mountains, and his lofty inspiration for his work.

The most fundamental expressions of nature are to him the most beautiful and impressive. Barren or scantily-clad mountain crests, jagged summits or bold, modeled slopes are his favorite compositions when accompanied by the most elementary and typical phenomena of seasons, long shadows, crepuscular glows, cloud forms, rising and enveloping vapors, snows, winds, intense cold and heat, and the natural unoverlaid foreground of naked ledge, weathered stumps or prostrate boles.

Mr. Noyes may be classed as a life-long investigator and student of the truest, complete and most artistic phenomena of nature.

His miniature pencil drawings of mountains, of which we produce three, are typical of his life's work. He has regarded them heretofore as mere studies for his own private use and improvement, but he is now satisfied, and well may be so, that they are of sufficient artistic merit to be shown to the public, and it is only now that anything from his pencil or brush has been withdrawn from privacy. Meanwhile, Mr. Noyes is engaged with oils and later on we may hope to see these grander mountain, lake and forest scenes of Maine and New Hampshire expressed upon canvas, with that interpretation which his pencil sketches so charmingly express.

THRIFT IS A NATURAL INBORN CHARACTER- ISTIC WITH SOME PEOPLE; IT IS AN ACQUIRED HABIT WITH OTHERS

If the majority of people realized that 97 per cent. of the business men meet reverses at the age of forty and are obliged to again rebuild their fortunes from the very foundation, the habit of thrift would gradually become more general. It would soon be regarded by the majority as a requisite of vital importance for a man early in life to establish a sinking fund and systematically lay aside for this purpose.

Why not provide against this by opening an account with this Bank? You can then deposit all money received and pay each bill by check. In this manner you will have a record of all receipts and expenditures and can establish a sinking fund to provide against reverses and old age.

We invite you to deposit your money, whether it be cash or checks, in this strong National Bank and start systematic saving. There is no expense to you in opening an account.
